

EMBASSY OF THE UNITED STATES

TIRANA • ALBANIA

Crisis Counseling Services

The contacts listed below are available and qualified to provide crisis counseling services. Although the practitioners have been selected with care the Embassy cannot assume responsibility for their professional ability or integrity. Crisis counseling and recognition of sexual or domestic violence is new to Albania, but most of these practitioners have been trained abroad.

Ms. Anxhela Gramo:

MA in clinical counseling, PhD candidate in psychotherapy research.

Anxhela has worked with survivors of domestic violence in Albania and has built competence in clinical counseling through her MA in the US. She has also qualified as a psychotherapist through her training with the Austrian based European Association for Psychotherapy.

Cell: +355-(0)68-200-6629

E-mail: aagramo@hotmail.com

Ms. Blerta Bodinaku:

MA in clinical psychology, PhD candidate in psychotherapy research

Blerta has worked with survivors of domestic violence in Albania and has built competence in therapy through her training with the Austrian based European Association for Psychotherapy

Cell: +355-(0)69-209-1999

E-mail: bbodinaku@gmail.com

Dr. Neli Demi:

Psychiatrist and psychotherapist. Neli has worked as a clinical psychiatrist in various clinical settings in Albania (both in- and outpatient) and has built competence in psychotherapy through his training with the Austrian based European Association for Psychotherapy

Cell: +355-(0)69-208-8460

E-mail: nelidemi@yahoo.com

Dr. Ledia Lazeri:

Psychiatrist and psychotherapist, PhD candidate in psychotherapy research

Ledia has worked as a clinical psychiatrist and as a university teacher of psychiatry and have built competence in psychotherapy through training with various institutes in the US and Europe as well as with the Austrian based European Association for Psychotherapy.

Cell: +355-(0)69-209-3873

E-mail: lla@euro.who.int
